TESOL HONORS TISHA R. TALLMAN WITH PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD

December 22, 2008 - Atlanta, GA – Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages, Inc. (TESOL), the global education association representing more than 13,000 English language educators worldwide, recognized Tisha R. Tallman, President and CEO of the Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce with a Public Service Award. She was selected by TESOL November 2008 at the Georgia TESOL Annual Conference in Jekyll Island.

The Public Service Award honors a person whose service to the public and actions go beyond the responsibilities of one's profession and that have helped improve the welfare of humankind, including significant contributions benefiting one's community, state, and/or nation.

"We are proud of Tisha for being recognized by TESOL. Her extensive contributions to support the economic development of our community are being demonstrated through her work with our Chamber members. We will continue to see more results of her work in the coming year" said Gabriel Vaca, GHCC Board Chair and UPS Director of Strategic Account Sales International Products.

The Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, with more than 1200 members, promotes and supports the domestic and international economic development of Hispanic businesses, and individuals. It also serves as a link between non-Hispanic entities and the Hispanic market.
