PRESS RELEASE

The Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Presents its 2019 Annual Legislative Breakfast

The GHCC is pleased to present its annual Legislative Breakfast on Tuesday, March 5 at the Georgia Depot Freight Room. This event is a special opportunity to recognize the work of government leaders and the critical role they play in the lives of Georgians. In attendance this year will be Georgia Governor Brian Kemp, Lieutenant Governor Geoff Duncan and U.S. Representative Barry Loudermilk. Georgia House Representatives include Brenda Lopez and Pedro Marin, Chairman of Legislative Delegation of Gwinnett. Senator Elena Parent and Senate Majority Leader Mike Dugan will also be present. Participants of the breakfast can meet these special guests, take pictures and hear directly from them about important issues of the day.

In keeping with the GHCC mission of promoting economic development of Hispanic businesses and individuals, the Legislative Breakfast is part of a broad effort to spur small business growth and support political advocacy. For over 35 years, the GHCC has been active in social, political and business circles. In 2018 the GHCC and the Georgia Chamber of Commerce (Georgia Chamber) launched a strategic partnership to promote inclusive economic growth and development.
